Abstract

The Rural World in Interwar Dobruja and the Appropriate Politic Parties. Responsiveness and Commitment

The aim of this study is to identify and highlight the level of political participation of the peasantry within the Romanian political system after 1918. The aforementioned political participation of the Romanian peasantry have been influenced by a variety of factors such as: the precarious economic situation, the emigration of the Turks and Tatars from Dobrudja, the founding of new settlements in Dobrudja by internal migration, the move of the population from rural area towards the main urban centers of the region due to their economic development. Thus the mobility of the population of Dobrudja hindered a constant participation of the peasantry of the region to the political life of Romania between the two world wars.

Keywords: political participation, Romanian political system, peasantry, Dobrudja
