

Case parohiale săsești dispărute*

Liliana D. CAZACU

Abstract

Lost Saxon Parsonages

The specialized literature on the parsonages of the Evangelical Church A.C. in Romania is scarce, despite their functional, cultural and esthetic value. In the context of the Saxon population decline, the fate of these buildings is uncertain. This research aims to bring to light a group of parsonages whose physical traces faded or even disappeared, thus leaving a blank space in the ecclesiastical core of some of the Saxon villages in Transylvania

Keywords: parsonage, Transylvania, lost buildings, Evangelical Church A.C., building typology, ecclesiastical building

* Studiul face parte dintr-o cercetare mai largă (circa 200 de case parohiale), care vor fi cuprinse în teza de doctorat a autoarei cu titlul „Case parohiale din Transilvania ale Bisericii Evanghelice C.A. din România”.

 Universitatea Lucian Blaga din Sibiu, Facultatea de Științe Socio-Umane, Departamentul de Istorie, Patrimoniul și Teologie Protestantă; Loeb Fellow a Graduate School of Design, Harvard University (liliana.cazacu@alumni.harvard.edu).